Read the passage and then answer the questions:

The sun was high in the sky and the rays shone directly on a bare piece of ground in the forest. In the centre of this bare spot there was something that looked like a large stone; it was a tiger. The tiger lay quite still. It was no longer able to attack the deer that were so easy to kill when he was young. They moved too quickly for him now. In order that he might live, it found himself forced to hunt the weakest animal of all, namely man. In other words, the tiger became a man-eater. It would wait impatiently near the stream until some unfortunate woman came near enough for it. When the men of the village arrived at the scene of the killing, the tiger was far away.

People began to talk about it. Some of them made efforts to find it, but in vain the tiger's habit of never going to the same place where it had once killed made it very difficult to know where it was. Tricks of all kinds were tried. Traps were cleverly laid but the tiger escaped them all.
